CITY OF STAYTON

Referred to the People by the City Council

24-290 MEASURE ADOPTING A REVISED CHARTER FOR THE CITY OF STAYTON

QUESTION: Shall the proposed 2010 City of Stayton Charter be adopted?

SUMMARY: If this measure is adopted, it would provide a new Charter for the City of Stayton. A charter is the fundamental document governing how a city government operates. It is comparable to a constitution. This Charter proposes replacement of the Stayton Charter of 1993 with the 2010 City of Stayton Charter. Many of the provisions contained in the 1993 Charter have either become outdated or are covered by state law. The proposed new Charter would retain many of the same basic provisions as the current Charter, such as the number of council members and the term of office of the mayor and councilors. The proposed Charter would use simplified language with the intention of making the Charter more understandable and easy to use. The proposed Charter would require that annexations over one acre not required by state law must be approved by city voters before the annexations take effect. If approved, the new Charter would take effect January 1, 2010. The Charter may be amended only by a vote of the people.

Explanatory Statement

If approved this measure would adopt the 2010 Charter for the City of Stayton effective on January 01, 2010. The 2010 Charter would replace the existing Charter, approved by Stayton voters in 1993. A Charter Review Committee made up of citizen volunteers, the Mayor and two Council members reviewed the current Charter and made recommendations to the City Council (“Council”).

The Oregon Constitution gives voters the right to adopt a home rule municipal charter, which establishes the form of government, grants authority to the Mayor and Council and sets forth the basic duties and legal obligations for city officials. The Council periodically reviews the Charter and recommends it be updated. Many of the provisions contained in the 1993 Charter have become outdated or are now covered by state law. The proposed 2010 Charter would keep many of the same basic elements as the current Charter, such as the number of Council members and the length of term of elective office.

The proposed 2010 Charter restatement would include the following changes:

- Require voter approval of annexations over one acre, unless the annexation was required to comply with state law.
- Require the Mayor appoint members of commissions and committees established by ordinance or resolution with the approval of a majority vote of the Council.
- Require the office of Mayor or Councilor becomes vacant upon incumbent’s absence from the City for 30 days, or from all Council meetings within a 60-day period without consent of the Council.
- Require the Council by resolution to adopt rules governing compensation, recruitment, selection, promotion, transfer, demotion, suspension, layoff, and dismissal of City employees based on merit and fitness.
- Identify the legislative, administrative and quasi-judicial authority of the Council.
- Contain requirements for ordinance enactment, resolution adoption and order approval.
- Require approval by a majority of the Council at two meetings for enactment of an ordinance.
- Require the duties of the City Administrator to be set by ordinance.

A copy of the proposed 2010 Charter is available on the City’s website at www.staytonoregon.gov or at the Stayton Public Library, 515 N. First Avenue and Stayton City Hall, 362 N. Third Avenue. The Charter may be changed only by a City wide vote of the citizens that live inside the Stayton city limits.
