Volunteers Are Needed!

Do you have an expertise or special interest that you would be willing to share with others?

The MCRI Inspire program is recruiting volunteers to lead workshops on a variety of topics to help participants learn about positive, pro-social activities that will help them succeed!

MCRI Inspire needs volunteers that can lead workshops on a variety of topics, such as a particular skill, like cooking, or geared toward professional resume writing or interview skills—and so much more!

Catherine Trottman, attorney

Catherine Trottman, a local attorney, has a passion to help and make a difference in her community.

Upon learning of the Marion County Reentry Initiative, Catherine began imagining ways she could help build on local efforts. Over the last year, Catherine has explored options and is excited to launch the new MCRI Inspire program. This program will weave together local talent, provide a safe and supportive learning environment, and encourage MCRI clients to learn about new skills and interest that will assist them in their successful reentry into the community.
