		request and messaging that goes out. MC has experienced 30% of the new cases in the last 7-10 days. ½ of all cases are related to an outbreak, cluster or household transmission. Do not want to stigmatize any one group. Supply chain issue with tests, we just rec 1000. Once rec HHS has count and assemble the test packages. Dist to first respond and N county. Get to areas of need based on OHA criteria. Katrina will provide data on jails and institution outbreaks. MC has opened up a pod for any outbreaks/quarantine. 1 person per jail cell, all incoming tested at intake. Our social media and websites have seen much more traffic and followers. NWHS has been working closely with the homeless population: some parks have been opened up for social distance camping and some high risk individuals have been housed in hotels. Behavioral health is being provided by telehealth and some in person appointments with safety measures in place. PCC is still open. IDDAC had first positive case in a foster home. Care providers have been diligent about who they let in their homes and exposure. Email April with further questions and join the Tuesday and Thursday call. April will send out Liaison contact information.
12:00-12:15	Talk Around Town (HAB)	SH feels very prepared for this pandemic, will open up surgeries soon, SH campus is still closed, have received many donations in meals and masks; Youth Era is still trying to peer support via Skype; Western University has gone to all classes online and possible in the fall too; the Out of Darkness walk will be held virtually; Micronesian community having food insecurities and PPE shortages, delivering food and fresh fruit and vegetables, school backpacks and deliver to directly to families; future speaker for HAB that Mike and Cydney are working on; OSH working hard to keep facility healthy and safe, temporarily closed admissions, will quarantine for 14 days anyone admitted, created a separate ward for any patient who has any illness symptoms.

Minutes

12:15-12:20	Administrator Recruitment Update (Ryan)	The recruitment has been temporarily put on hold, until the county gets back on track after COVID-19.
12:20-12:25	Budget Follow Up (Ryan)	Budget we proposed FTE increase I have heard at state level some finding cuts some will be offset by COVID FUNDING. Been conservative for many years so that we can weather things like this.
12:25-12:30	Next Meeting (All)
12:30	Adjourn (Deb)

Perspective for today's meeting; what community connections do I bring to HAB?

Next Meeting: Tuesday June 2, 2020 from 11:30-1:00
