- b. Appointment. The Marion County Public Safety Coordinating Council shall be comprised of no more than twenty-five (25) members (voting and non-voting), who shall be appointed as noted above. Members identified in Sections 4(a)(2) and 4(a)(4) shall be appointed for terms of three years.
- c. Duties. Members of the Public Safety Coordinating Council undertake the responsibility of assisting the Council in achieving its mission. Fulfillment of this responsibility includes the following:
 - (1) Provide support to the Council in the community;
 - (2) Work on Council projects to advance its goals;
 - (3) Communicate with members in order to facilitate the work of the Council;
 - (4) Regularly attend meetings. More than five (5) unexcused absences in any 12-month period may result in removal of the member from the Council. A member's absence is unexcused if the member fails to notify county staff in advance of a meeting that the member will not attend the meeting..
 - (5) Attend meetings prepared to participate.

5. Termination.

- a. Removal by Board of Commissioners. The Council members identified in subsections 4(a)(1)(v), 4(a)(2)(ii) and (iii) and 4(a)(4)(vi), (vii) and (viii) shall serve at the pleasure of the Board of Commissioners. The Board of Commissioners may remove a Council member on its own motion or upon the recommendation of the Council.
- b. Removal by Presiding Judge. The Council members identified in Section 4(a)(3) shall serve at the pleasure of the presiding judge. The presiding judge may remove these Council members on his or her own motion or upon the recommendation of the Council.
- c. Resignation. Resignations by members shall be submitted in writing to the Marion County Public Safety Coordinating Council chair and announced at the next regularly scheduled meeting. The chair shall forward a copy of the resignation to the Board of Commissioners and the presiding judge.
- d. Reasons for dismissal. The Board of Commissioners may remove a member identified in subsections 4(a)(1)(v), 4(a)(2)(ii) and (iii) and 4(a)(4)(vi), (vii) and (viii) when it determines that it is in the interest of the Council or the county to do so. The presiding judge may remove a member identified in Section 4(a)(3) when he or she determines that it is in the interest of the Council or the county to do so.

6. Meetings.

- a. Public meeting laws. The Marion County Public Safety Coordinating Council is a public body subject to the public meetings and record laws as stated in ORS Chapter 192. All meetings will be open to the public.

- b. Regular meetings. The Council meets on the second Tuesday of each month at 4:00 p.m. Regular meetings may be canceled or changed to another specific place, date and time provided that actual notice is given.
- c. Notice. The Council will provide for and give public notice, reasonably calculated to give actual notice, to Council members, interested persons, news media that have requested notice, and general public notice. Notice shall include the time and place for holding regular meetings. The notice will also include a list of the primary subjects anticipated to be considered at the meeting. Distribution of meeting notices will be in a manner that maximizes the potential of the public awareness of the proceedings of the Council and to participate in its deliberations. Whenever possible, matters resulting in a recommendation to the Board of Commissioners will be deliberated during a minimum of two meetings to assure maximum participation.
- d. Special meetings. Special meetings may be called by the Council chair by notifying all members and the general public through a news media notice not less than 24 hours prior to the time of the special meeting. When possible, notice should be provided as soon as possible to encourage public participation.
- e. Quorum. The majority of the appointed voting membership of the Council will constitute a quorum for the transaction of all business at meetings. Non-voting members are not counted towards achieving a quorum. Members may attend either in person or by conference call so long as persons in attendance and on the telephone can both hear and communicate with each other. Members attending by telephone conferencing may be counted towards achieving a quorum.
- f. Decision making procedure. Each Council member identified in Sections 4(a)(1), 4(a)(2) and 4(a)(3) will be entitled to one vote on all issues presented at meetings at which the member is present. The primary decision-making method shall be the consensus process. Consensus is achieved when all members approve an action. However, if consensus cannot be achieved with regard to any issue, decision-making shall be accomplished by majority vote. Majority is defined as a majority of the quorum.
- g. Minutes. The staff member assigned to the Council will cause meeting minutes to be prepared. Minutes will include a list of the members present, motions, proposals, resolutions, and orders proposed and their disposition, the results of all votes and a vote by each member by name, the substance of any discussions on any matter, and reference to any document discussed at that meeting. Minutes will be distributed to the membership one week prior to the monthly meeting. Minutes will also be distributed to the Board of Commissioners and posted on the department's website.
- h. Agendas. Items may be placed on a meeting agenda by any Council member or by county staff. The agenda will be distributed to members at least five (5) days prior to a regular meeting.

7. Steering Committee.

- a. Members. Only members of the Council may serve on the Steering Committee. The Steering Committee shall be comprised of the chair, vice-chair, at least one citizen representative and at least one representative from each of the following city and county agencies:

- (1) A city police department;
- (2) The Marion County Sheriff Office;
- (3) The Marion County District Attorney's Office;
- (4) The Department of Children and Families;
- (5) The Marion County Juvenile Department.

b. Steering Committee meetings. The Steering Committee shall meet prior to the regular meeting of the Council. The chair of the Council shall appoint the members of the Steering Committee. Any member of the Council may attend and participate in the Steering Committee meetings. The Steering Committee shall be responsible for the following:

- (1) Developing the Council meeting agendas and ensuring matters are ready for Council meetings;
- (2) Ensuring assignments are completed and prepared for Council meetings;
- (3) Making recommendations to the Council for the formation of Task Teams;
- (4) Recommending, to the Council, individuals to serve on Task Teams;
- (5) Ongoing coordination of teams created by the Council.

8. Task Teams.

The Council may authorize the formation of special committees, called Task Teams, as necessary to deal with specific problems or issues as the Council believes appropriate. All Task Teams are required to report their information and/or recommendations to the Council. Task Team members need not be members of the Council. The Council will select the members of the Task Teams.

9. Officers. A County Commissioner will be the chair and will facilitate Council meetings. The chair will select the vice-chair with the consent of the Council.

a. Chair responsibilities. The chair will act as leader of the convened meeting and as the parliamentarian. The chair will enforce Council directives, guidelines and membership rules and will guide the conduct of public meetings. The chairperson is the official representative of the Council and shall be the spokesperson to the media.

b. Vice chair responsibilities. In the absence of the chair, the vice chair will assume the chair's responsibilities. If neither the chair nor vice chair is available for a publicly-convened meeting, then the assembled quorum of the meeting will select a temporary chairperson to conduct the meeting.

10. Conflicts of Interest.

a. Declaration. The Council is subject to ORS 244.020, 244.040(1), and 244.120 to 244.030, defining conflict of interest and establishing protocols for members of public bodies in Oregon. Council members are expected to declare a conflict of interest prior to consideration of any matter causing a potential or actual conflict.

b. Potential conflict defined. A potential conflict of interest exists when a Council member takes an action that reasonably could be expected to have a financial impact on that member, a relative, or a business with which the member or member's relative is associated. The Council member may participate in an action after declaring the potential conflict and announcing its nature.

- c. Actual conflict defined. An actual conflict of interest exists when an action is reasonably certain to result in a special benefit or detriment to the Council member, a relative, or a business with which the member or member's relative is associated. The member will declare the actual conflict and announce its nature. The member must then refrain from taking any official action, except when the member's vote is necessary to achieve a quorum. When a vote is necessary to achieve a quorum, the member may vote, but may not participate in any discussion or debate on the issue out of which the actual conflict arises.

11. Amendment to Bylaws.

- a. Initiated by Council. The Council may propose amendments to the bylaws. Any recommendations agreed upon by the majority of the Council shall be forwarded to the Board of Commissioners for its approval. In accordance with Administrative Policy B-17, bylaws will be reviewed by the Council chair every three years .
- b. Initiated by Board of Commissioners. The Board of Commissioners may initiate changes to the bylaws. These changes will be submitted to the Council for review and consultation prior to the Board of Commissioners' adoption.
- c. Distribution. Upon the Board of Commissioners approving amendment of bylaws, the Board of Commissioners will distribute the bylaws to all members of the Council.

12. Community Relations/Public Input.

Any member of the public will be welcome to attend and provide input at Council meetings. Public comments will be encouraged and will be accepted verbally or in writing. Anyone who wishes to voice an opinion or present information or concerns to the Council may come to the meetings or contact either the chair, the vice-chair, or Board of Commissioners staff. Arrangements will be made and time will be allotted at meetings as appropriate to assure broad public participation.
