Open Class Exhibits at the Marion County Fair

Do you make the best tasting berry pie in Marion County? Are you known for taking fabulous photographs? Is setting a gorgeous table one of your passions? If so, the 2011 Marion County Fair held July 7-10 at the Oregon State Fairgrounds offers a wide variety of class competitions open to all individuals; you don't need to be a member of any club or organization to participate.

Categories at the fair include amateur art, foods, hobbies, photography, textiles, table setting, and floral/garden products. Exhibits are judged and awarded ribbons; some departments having additional prizes such as cash and gift cards. Exhibits will be on display throughout all four days of the fair.

Both pre-registration and on-site registration is available. To participate, see the web site at www.mcfair.net, and click on "Exhibitor Information." Rules, regulations, and entry process are all available on-line. For additional information, call the Fair Office at (503) 585-9998.
