Brown's Island Landfill Expected to Close Due to Weather

Salem, OR - Marion County's Brown's Island Landfill located at 2895 Faragate Street South, Salem, is expected to close sometime Thursday or Friday due to predicted flooding of the access road to the site. Once closed, the landfill will remain closed until the access road reopens. There is no flooding expected at the landfill. This is a periodic event that last occurred during the winter of 2010.

Residents are asked to call (503) 588-5169 or visit www.co.marion.or.us/pw/es to confirm the status of landfill before visiting the site.

For more information please contact Royce Young (503) 881-1913 or Beth Myers-Shenai (503) 588-5169 x5920 at Marion County Environmental Services.
