Marion County Commissioner Re-Appointed to National Committee

Marion County Commissioner Janet Carlson has been re-appointed to the National Association of Counties (NACo) Human Services and Education Committee.

In confirming the appointment, NACo President Valerie Brown said “Committee membership at a national level is a serious commitment and a big responsibility, even more so this year with a federal administration engaged in developing policy on a number of issues facing counties.”

As a member of the committee, Commissioner Carlson will be involved in matters such as welfare reform, older Americans, food stamps, rights of the handicapped, de-institutionalization, low-income energy assistance, and domestic violence.

“I am honored to again be appointed to a national committee,” Commissioner Carlson said. “This opportunity allows me to help influence policy at the national level and to bring important information home that helps the citizens of Marion County.”
