

TEEN SCENE

Teen programs are free and open to all middle and high school-aged teens (youth ages 11 – 18). All events are held on Thursday evenings from 6:30 – 8:30 p.m. in Loucks Auditorium unless otherwise indicated. Snacks and beverages are always included! Space is limited for some programs; register before the program date at the Youth Services Desk in person or by calling 503-588-6088.

Thursday, June 24, Loucks Auditorium Fear Factor Food Challenge

Kick off the summer with a hair-raising, gag-inducing, heart-racing good time by taking part in the library's Fear Factor Food Challenge! Think you can stomach such things like clam juice, crickets, and pickled pig's feet? Join us as a contestant or watch your friends try to consume gross, disgusting foods and compete in games like "Bobbing for Sausages" and a "Worm Relay Race." Prizes awarded to Challenge Champions and runner-up participants.

Competitors MUST bring a signed a parental consent form, which will be available in print at the Youth Services Desk or electronically on the teen pages of the library's website beginning June 8.

Thursday, July 1, Children's Activity Room Funky LP and CD Clock Craft

Take an old vinyl record or scratched up CD and turn it into a cool, functioning wall clock! Using materials provided by the library, including dozens of off-the-wall 45's, bring a friend and join us in creating a unique piece of art that can be personalized for your own use or as a gift for that special someone.

Thursday, July 8, Loucks Auditorium Roller Derby

Here's your chance to get up close and personal with real-life roller derby girls! Meet and talk with members of Salem's own Cherry City Derby Girls, and learn all about the sport, including equipment, rules, and common plays. Create your own derby name and persona, try on some of the gear, and step up to assist the CCDGs as they demonstrate various moves seen on the track. All attendees will have a chance to win tickets to the Derby Girls' Hometown Bout on July 17th and teens will hear about how they too could get involved with the CCDGs!

Thursday, July 15, Loucks Auditorium "60 Second Showdown"

Think you could be a contestant on the NBC game show "Minute to Win It?" Demonstrate your extreme skills by competing in a series of simple, yet nerve-wracking games like Hanky Panky, Bobble Head and Candy Elevator. Using everyday household items, participants will face numerous challenges – each with a one-minute time limit – that escalate in level of difficulty. Come be a part of the audience even if you don't want to try the games. Prizes awarded to winners, and laughs guaranteed for all!

Thursday, July 22, Loucks Auditorium Teen Movie Night: "Jaws"

It was made long before today's teens were born, but after seeing this terrifying and shocking movie based on the bestselling novel, you too will think twice before swimming in the ocean again! When a man-eating shark kills three different people in three different incidents, fear and panic erupts in a Long Island resort town. Prepared to face a life-or-death hunt, three men join together and become unstoppable in their quest to destroy the "great white" killer. Rated PG, 124 minutes.

Thursday, July 29, Loucks Auditorium Game On

Calling all gamers! Bring a friend and your favorite game from home for an evening of electronic gaming and board games at the Library. We'll be setting up the Library's Wii and PS3, and have games like Rock Band and Super Smash Brothers on hand; you're also welcome to bring your own console and E or T rated games, and we'll help you set it up. Popular board games like Twister, Scattergories, and Simpson's Clue will also be available for non-video gamers.

Thursday, August 5, Loucks Auditorium Pizza Tasting Party

Back by popular demand! Who doesn't love pizza? Come tantalize your taste buds and pick your favorite crust, sauce, toppings and best overall pizza. Several local pizzerias will bring their best to this tasty, delicious contest and participants will all vote. Bring nothing except yourself, your friends, and your appetite!
