Termination of COUNTY participation may occur only at the end of a month. This Agreement will terminate on the same date that COUNTY discontinues its participation in the Plan.

- A. All network traffic covered by this agreement will employ TCP/IP network protocols.
- B. DEPARTMENT will continue its policy of only providing one router to each county. This means that if COUNTY's jail and the parole and probation office are located in separate buildings, COUNTY will be responsible for providing a connection between the two buildings.

2. COUNTY understands and acknowledges that DEPARTMENT is subject to the public records provision of ORS 192.311 through 192.478 and other applicable laws and administrative rules which establish uniform guidelines and procedures for the release of information from DEPARTMENT's computer system.

INDEMNIFICATION
MARION COUNTY

Contribution

If any third party makes any claim or brings any action, suit or proceeding alleging a tort as now or hereafter defined in ORS 30.260 ("Third Party Claim") against a party (the "Notified Party") with respect to which the other party ("Other Party") may have liability, the Notified Party must promptly notify the Other Party in writing of the Third Party Claim and deliver to the Other Party a copy of the claim, process, and all legal pleadings with respect to the Third Party Claim. Either party is entitled to participate in the defense of a Third Party Claim, and to defend a Third Party Claim with counsel of its own choosing. Receipt by the Other Party of the notice and copies required in this paragraph and meaningful opportunity for the Other Party to participate in the investigation, defense and settlement of the Third Party Claim with counsel of its own choosing are conditions precedent to the Other Party's liability with respect to the Third Party Claim.

With respect to a Third Party Claim for which the Department is jointly liable with the County (or would be if joined in the Third Party Claim), the Department shall contribute to the amount of expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred and paid or payable by the County in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect the relative fault of the Department on the one hand and of the County on the other hand in connection with the events which resulted in such expenses, judgments, fines or settlement amounts, as well as any other relevant equitable considerations. The relative fault of the Department on the one hand and of the County on the other hand shall be determined by reference to, among other things, the parties' relative intent, knowledge, access to information and opportunity to correct or prevent the circumstances resulting in such expenses, judgments, fines or settlement amounts. The Department's contribution amount in any instance is capped to the same extent it would have been capped under Oregon law if the Department had sole liability in the proceeding.

With respect to a Third Party Claim for which the County is jointly liable with the Department (or would be if joined in the Third Party Claim), the County shall contribute to the amount of expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred and paid or payable by the Department in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect the relative fault of the County on the one hand and of the Department on the other hand in connection with the events which resulted in such expenses, judgments, fines or settlement amounts, as well as any other relevant equitable considerations. The relative fault of the County on the one hand and of the Department on the other hand shall be determined by reference to, among other things, the parties' relative intent, knowledge, access to information and opportunity to correct or prevent the circumstances resulting in such expenses, judgments, fines or settlement amounts. The County's contribution amount in any instance is capped to the same extent it would have been capped under Oregon law if it had sole liability in the proceeding.

Alternative Dispute Resolution

The parties should attempt in good faith to resolve any dispute arising out of this agreement. This may be done at any management level, including at a level higher than persons directly responsible for administration of the agreement. In addition, the parties may agree to utilize a jointly selected mediator or arbitrator (for non-binding arbitration) to resolve the dispute short of litigation.

Indemnification by Subcontractors

County shall take all reasonable steps to cause its contractor(s) that are not units of local government as defined in ORS 190.003, if any, to indemnify, defend, save and hold harmless the State of Oregon and its officers, employees and agents ("Indemnitee") from and against any and all claims, actions, liabilities, damages, losses, or expenses (including attorneys' fees) arising from a tort (as now or hereafter defined in ORS 30.260) caused, or alleged to be caused, in whole or in part, by the negligent or willful acts or omissions of County's contractor or any of the officers, agents, employees or subcontractors of the contractor ("Claims"). It is the specific intention of the parties that the Indemnitee shall, in all instances, except for Claims arising solely from the negligent or willful acts or omissions of the Indemnitee, be indemnified by the contractor from and against any and all Claims.

Subcontractor Insurance Requirements

GENERAL

County shall require its first tier contractor(s) that are not units of local government as defined in ORS 190.003, if any, to: i) obtain insurance specified under TYPES AND AMOUNTS and meeting the requirements under, "TAIL" COVERAGE, NOTICE OF CANCELLATION OR CHANGE, and CERTIFICATES OF INSURANCE before the contractors perform under contracts between County and the contractors (the "Subcontracts"), and ii) maintain the insurance in full force throughout the duration of the Subcontracts. The insurance must be provided by insurance companies or entities that are authorized to transact the business of insurance and issue coverage in the State of Oregon and that are acceptable to County. County shall not authorize contractors to begin work under the Subcontracts until the insurance is in full force. Thereafter, County shall monitor continued compliance with the insurance requirements on an annual or more frequent basis. County shall incorporate appropriate provisions in the Subcontracts permitting it to enforce contractor compliance with the insurance requirements and shall take all reasonable steps to enforce such compliance. Examples of "reasonable steps" include issuing stop work orders (or the equivalent) until the insurance is in full force or terminating the Subcontracts as permitted by the Subcontracts, or pursuing legal action to enforce the insurance requirements. In no event shall County permit a contractor to work under a Subcontract when the County is aware that the contractor is not in compliance with the insurance requirements. As used in this section, a "first tier" contractor is a contractor with which the county directly enters into a contract. It does not include a subcontractor with which the contractor enters into a contract.

TYPES AND AMOUNTS

PROFESSIONAL LIABILITY

Professional Liability Insurance covering any damages caused by an error, omission or negligent act related to the services to be provided under the Subcontract, with limits not less than $2,000,000, as determined by the Department:

"TAIL" COVERAGE If any of the required insurance policies is on a "claims made" basis, such as professional liability insurance, the contractor shall maintain either "tail" coverage or continuous "claims made" liability coverage, provided the effective date of the continuous "claims made" coverage is on or before the effective date of the Subcontract, for a minimum of 24 months following the later of : (i) the contractor's completion and County 's acceptance of all Services required under the Subcontract or, (ii) the expiration of all warranty periods provided under the Subcontract. Notwithstanding the foregoing 24-month requirement, if the contractor elects to maintain "tail" coverage and if the maximum time period "tail" coverage reasonably available in the marketplace is less than the 24-month period described above, then the contractor may request and the Department may grant approval of the maximum "tail " coverage period reasonably available in the marketplace. If Department approval is granted, the contractor shall maintain "tail" coverage for the maximum time period that "tail" coverage is reasonably available in the marketplace.

NOTICE OF CANCELLATION OR CHANGE The contractor or its insurer must provide 30 days' written notice to County before cancellation of, material change to, potential exhaustion of aggregate limits of, or non-renewal of the required insurance coverage(s).

CERTIFICATE(S) OF INSURANCE County shall obtain from the contractor a certificate(s) of insurance for all required insurance before the contractor performs under the Subcontract. The certificate(s) or an attached endorsement must specify: i) all entities and individuals who are endorsed on the policy as Additional Insured and ii) for insurance on a "claims made" basis, the extended reporting period applicable to "tail" or continuous "claims made" coverage.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Marion County Sheriff's Office Community Corrections Division

“Hope to change”
“Courage to make it happen”
“Determination to follow through”

The Marion County Sheriff's Office continually strives toward excellence. Excellence demands the effective use of available resources and ceaselessly seeking new ways to enhance service delivery within our community. Our resources include: budgeted funds, equipment, buildings, and contracted programming. However, our most valuable resource is our employees. The Marion County Sheriff's Office has employees and volunteers who are exceedingly dedicated, well trained, and respond creatively to any and all demands.

Over the last twenty years, the Community Corrections Division has embraced Evidence Based Practices (EBP) as a key, guiding philosophy to deliver supervision services to our client population and implement many program elements to transition toward EBP. Both line staff and management have been trained in Professor Edward Latessa's (University of Cincinnati) "what works" research, and implemented techniques to enhance client motivation and risk reduction. The Community Corrections Division also provides client supervision with all staff trained in the model of Effective Practices in Community Supervision (EPICS) to further enhance our EBP implementation. Additionally, the division has continued to embrace the George Mason RNR tool and the Correctional Program Checklist (CPC), to assess and determine how closely our contract treatment programs meet known principles of effective intervention. Internally, our EBP implementation has focused our efforts on three key principles:

- The Risk Principle: Clients who pose higher risk of continued criminal conduct receive the most intensive correctional treatments and programming. This principle is addressed through the division's use of the Level of Service/Case Management Inventory (LS/CMI) and the Women's Risk/Needs Assessment (WRNA), validated risk and needs assessments, which determine who our highest risk clients are. All division staff have been trained on the use of these assessments, which are utilized during the pre-release transition process, the initial intake process and field supervision.
- The Need Principle: Our staff and treatment programs must target crime producing needs which are highly correlated with criminal conduct such as antisocial peer associations, antisocial values and beliefs, substance abuse, lack of problem solving and self-control skills, and motivation. These needs areas are identified through the use of the LS/CMI and WRNA and are addressed with cognitive behavioral interventions and other skill building techniques associated with the EPICS model of supervision.
- The Responsivity Principle: This is the way in which correctional programs should target those known risk and need factors, utilizing programs that are behavioral in nature. Currently, the Community Corrections Division utilizes the University of Rhode Island Change Assessment (URICA) to determine a particular client's stage of change - which indicates whether a client is willing to address and/or change a problem area (i.e., crime or drug use) in their life. Clients who are identified as not ready to change are referred to motivation and cognitive programming; and those who are ready to change receive a direct treatment referral as needed. Additionally, all division staff have been trained in the use of Motivational Interviewing, a client-centered communication technique designed to elicit behavior change by helping clients explore and resolve ambivalence.

Overall, our goal at the Sheriff's Office, Community Corrections Division is to provide evidence based programs, custody/sanctions and other support services that will make the most effective use of available resources to protect the public and promote the reformative process. Further, we strive to enhance the integrity of the law, and implement and maintain programs and efforts geared toward empowering the client to become a contributing member of the community.

For the 2023-2025 biennium, we have designed a program addressing these challenges within the scope of our operating principles.

Accomplishments during 2021-2023:

- 50:1 client to parole/probation deputy caseload average.
- Continued operation of Student Opportunity for Achieving Results (SOAR), an intensive and collaborative 12-week cognitive based treatment and employment program designed for drug addicted clients returning to the community from incarceration with high criminogenic needs. This program is delivered at the Chemeketa Community College campus and offers a variety of services including enhanced supervision, cognitive programming, parenting classes, mentoring, housing, employment services, and addiction treatment. The latest evaluation utilizing the CPC rated SOAR as “Very High Adherence to EBP”. Since inception of the SOAR program (January 2010), 57.7% of all program referrals graduate. Currently, the recidivism rate of SOAR graduates is at 38.9%, which is a considerably lower rate than other high risk clients on supervision in Marion County during the same time frame.
- In an effort to expand the number of gender specific services offered to female clients on community supervision, the first female SOAR cohort began in March 2023. The cohort was 15 weeks in length and 13 students successfully graduated on June 29, 2023. The gender-responsive programming was designed to account for the unique challenges faced by females who are involved in the criminal justice system.
- Although we have seen some volatility in recidivism in both our post-prison (includes DOC and Local Control populations combined) and probation populations over the last ten years; there is an overall trend of decreasing recidivism rates for both populations no matter what definition of recidivism is used to measure. Recidivism rate charts are attached following this summary.
- All Community Corrections Division staff have been trained in EPICS. This 34-hour course was provided by the University of Cincinnati Corrections Institute and is designed to give our field deputies the training necessary to effectively address key risk factors within our client population to reduce the likelihood of future criminal behavior, as well as maintain the highest level of accountability and community safety. Additionally, we have four staff that have been trained as EPICS instructors to ensure our parole/probation deputies provide continuous quality services within our EPICS implementation.
- Continued investment in the SB416 program, an evidence based sentencing and prison alternative program in collaboration with the District Attorney’s Office and the Criminal Justice Commission. We ensure that appropriate clients are safely managed and held accountable in the community in order to lessen the increasing demand of more expensive prison beds. This effort allows for the preservation of approximately 60 prison beds per year made available for more serious, higher risk clients who present the greatest threat to the community. The SB416 program implements a balanced approach to this target population through funding for parole/probation deputies, treatment and mentoring, as well as funding for five additional jail beds to appropriately manage the population.
- We continued our Family Sentencing Alternative Program (FSAP); a collaboration between our office, the Marion County District Attorney’s Office, Bridgeway Recovery Services, and the Department of Human Services. This prison diversion program allows clients who have primary custody of a minor child to remain in the community and receive wrap-around treatment, mentoring, and employment services to address the underlying drivers of their criminal conduct. This program reduces the traumatic effects that incarcerated parents have on children and families. Updated data indicates the children of parents involved in FSAP have a shorter average length of stay in foster care (706 days) compared to the average for children of incarcerated parents (1,066 days).
- Continued operation of the Transition from Jail to Community (TJC) Program. Using the TJC model developed by the National Institute of Corrections, the goal of the TJC program is to reduce the number of individuals returning to jail by providing targeted transition planning and pre-release services, including cognitive skills classes, to adults in custody at the Marion County Transition Center.
- Obtained Measure 57 supplemental funding and contracted with the University of Cincinnati to provide their CBI/Substance Use Disorder training for in-house programs and community treatment providers.
- Continued operation of the Downward Departure Program, an evidence based sentencing and prison alternative program in collaboration with the District Attorney’s Office and the Criminal Justice Commission. We ensure that appropriate clients are safely managed and held accountable in the community in order to lessen the increasing demand of more expensive prison beds.
- Secured additional Justice Reinvestment funding to develop and implement a Gender Responsive Unit to address the specific needs and experiences of women involved in the criminal justice system.
- Contracted with PMJ Consulting, LLC to assess our readiness to engage in equity planning, identify and define existing gaps in current services for historically underserved communities, identify key training areas to help increase the cultural competency of Sheriff's Office staff so we can best serve the individuals on supervision in Marion County. Additionally, they will provide recommendations on engaging underserved communities in ongoing Justice Re-Investment (JRI) program planning and implementation, including identifying steps to increase the provision of culturally responsive services.

Future Plans:

- Continued improvement and implementation of Evidence Based Practices and the EPICS model of supervision. Continued training of EPICS for our staff and EPICS Training of Trainers to ensure fidelity of the model in the future.
- Positive movement in state benchmarks: recidivism, employment, treatment, restitution, and positive case closures.
- Expand use and implementation of the Offender Management System, to include ongoing audits to achieve full implementation of effective case planning and the EPICS model of supervision.
- Continue to ensure Justice Reinvestment funding is commensurate with program needs.
- Continue to reduce the average size of field caseloads.
- Collaborate with the Marion County Public Safety Coordinating Council and our partner public safety agencies to reduce the number of people with mental illness in the Marion County Jail and Transition Center.
- Continue with our current prison reentry and diversion programs.
- Continue to evaluate the effectiveness of all current programs and improve outcome measures in each.
- Continue to improve outcomes within the Biennial Community Corrections Review completed by the Department of Corrections.
- Work with our community partner programs to improve adherence to Evidence Based Practices through technical assistance and training.
- Ensure we are developing programs and practices that are committed to increasing equity in historically and currently underserved communities.
- Work to implement statewide contact standards while attempting to maintain fidelity to our Evidence Based Practice initiatives.
- Develop innovative strategies to hire and retain a competent and efficient workforce.
- Collaborate with the Marion County Health Department and the Oregon Judicial Department to monitor the population of people in Marion County with severe and persistent mental illnesses released from the Oregon State Hospital, to be restored in the community so they may aid and assist in their own defense.

Program Name:	Supervision
Program Description:	The Community Corrections Division of the Marion County Sheriff's Office provides supervision to clients in Marion County to enhance public safety, enforce court orders, and hold clients accountable. Our division's mission, or "our brand" is to consistently find ways to collaborate with criminal justice partners, focus resources and supervision on our highest risk clients, and utilize core principles of EBP to implement and sustain a research-based supervision and case management practice which best addresses our clients' needs. The Community Corrections Division has embraced Evidence based Practices and community policing as guiding philosophies to deliver supervision services to our client population. Key EBP components of this division are the use of assessments, case plans, enhancing client motivation, and the utilization of sanctions and services that reduce risk and promote client change. All of our staff have been trained in EPICS by the University of Cincinnati. This training was designed to give field officers the training necessary to apply the most effective supervision model available by addressing key "risk" factors within the client population to reduce the likelihood of future criminal behavior as well as maintain the highest level of accountability and community safety. Additionally, we have four staff trained as EPICS instructors to ensure our division staff provide continuous quality services within our EPICS implementation. We have also enhanced treatment services and have two Program Coordinator positions to ensure that our client programs utilize EBP in their correctional interventions. Parole/probation certified deputies provide the highest level of supervision to clients who present the greatest risk to the community (based on validated risk assessment tools). A variety of statutory, policy, and contractual mandates are satisfied, such as sex offender notification, management of clients sentenced to one year or less in local jails, transitional planning, hearings, and pre-sentence investigations. We collaborate with a number of community partners including Chemeketa Community College, Mid-Willamette Valley Community Action Agency, Marion County Circuit Court, Marion County District Attorney's Office, Marion County Health and Human Services, and MCRI. Our efforts have enhanced the ability to provide transition services, victim services and specialized support for the Drug Endangered Children initiative, Fostering Attachment/Treatment Court, Drug Court, Mental Health Court and Veterans Court. There is an ongoing effort to increase the number and scope of these partnerships in an effort to promote positive behavioral change within our supervised client population. Direct supervision caseloads are divided and organized based on crime of conviction, level of risk and geographic regions within the county, facilitating community partnerships, familiarity with the community, and effective community policing. There are specialized caseloads for sex offenders, gang, mental health, domestic violence, gender responsive, transition/reentry, prison diversion, and clients participating in Drug Court, Mental Health Court and Veterans Court. Administration: The Administration provides focus, leadership, and integration for the various supervision and program facets of the Community Corrections Division. The administration has transitioned from a directive based model to an evidence based practices supervisory model. This unit works collaboratively with system partners to develop public safety policy, ensure adequate funding and increase public safety within the community. The Administration is responsible for ensuring adherence to the contract with the Oregon Department of Corrections, including outcome measures. Intake Services: The Intake Unit's purpose is to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Orient and explain the assessment process and to assure the client has a clear understanding of the expectations of being on supervision. • Assess the risk level of the client to ensure they are assigned to the appropriate resources and supervision level so the assigned parole/probation deputy can conduct specific case management geared to the individual's case, in accordance with Evidence based Practices.

- Refer appropriate clients to motivation and cognitive restructuring groups based on the URICA assessment.
- Make appropriate resource referrals for Limited Supervision Unit clients.
- Request warrants for clients who fail to report after releasing from custody or following conviction.

Levels of Supervision:

The PSC risk score establishes the initial level of supervision. Clients assessed as high-risk or medium-risk are then assigned to specific units based on crime of conviction, risk level, and geographic location. There are specific supervision contact standards and caseload requirements for our high and medium-risk populations to align this division with evidence based practices. All low-risk and limited-risk cases assigned to the General Supervision Unit are supervised by the Limited Supervision Unit (case bank). Clients assigned to the Limited Supervision Unit are monitored for new law violations and behavior that constitutes a public safety threat. Clients are moved from the unit for behavior that threatens public safety as defined by set guidelines.

Field Training and Evaluation Program (FTEP):

The purpose of the FTEP program is to provide effective and efficient training for parole/probation deputies in Marion County. Newly hired parole/probation deputies are placed in a 40 week training program, during which they receive structured training and evaluation from at least four different, DPSST certified Field Training Officers.

Unit Assignments:

Domestic Violence Unit:

The Domestic Violence Unit supervises approximately 570 clients on parole/post-prison supervision or probation for domestic violence related crimes. This five person team of parole/probation deputies was formed to coordinate supervision and intervention efforts in an attempt to reduce the alarming incident rate of domestic homicide and domestic violence. Assessment of risk (based on the PSC, LS/CMI and ODARA assessment tools) is a key component in the case management process to ensure scarce supervision resources are focused on clients who pose the greatest risk to their victims and the community. The unit has incorporated a limited supervision caseload comprised of approximately 200 low-risk cases that report via an internet based web portal or US mail. One half-time case aide is assigned to oversee these cases and monitor compliance. These clients are screened for new law violations and behavior that constitute a public safety threat. Clients in the low-risk category are still held accountable for any violations. The Domestic Violence Unit works closely with local law enforcement, batterer intervention programs, victim services, and other service agencies to enhance public safety and hold clients accountable.

Sex Offender Unit:

This specialized unit is responsible for the supervision of approximately 300 high and medium-risk sex offenders as well as 200 low-risk sex offenders currently being supervised on a limited supervision caseload. Assessment of risk (based on the PSC, LS/CMI, WRNA, STATIC/STABLE/ACUTE assessment tools) is a key component in the case management process to ensure supervision resources are focused on clients who pose the greatest risk to their victims and the community. This team is comprised of five parole/probation deputies, one half-time case aide, sex offender treatment providers, polygraph examiners, Marion County Victim Services and the Sex Crimes Team of the Marion County District Attorney's Office.

This team works in collaboration with law enforcement agencies, child welfare, schools, local neighborhood associations and the community as a whole, in an effort to end further victimization by reducing sexually offending behavior.

General Supervision Unit:

The General Supervision Unit consists of 7 parole/probation deputies. This unit supervises approximately 300 clients on parole/post-prison supervision and probation for crimes related to illegal drug possession, property crimes, and non-domestic person-to-person offenses (excluding domestic violence and sex offenses). This unit is the largest and most active field unit within our division which is responsible for tailoring supervision to each client's identified risk, need, and responsivity issues, using the LS/CMI and WRNA to target resources towards clients who are at the highest risk to re-offend.

Special Services Unit:

The Special Services Unit (SSU) targets evidence based supervision strategies toward our highest risk clients. This unit is comprised of two parole/probation deputies who supervise approximately 100 clients. Those clients include affiliated gang clients as well as a subset of the criminal population that have displayed tendencies toward violence, egocentricity, impulsivity, and manipulation; and have significant deficits in expressing empathy or remorse. This unit maximizes division resources by employing validated risk assessments and utilizing cognitive-behavioral interventions and social learning techniques aimed at containing violence, reducing future criminal behavior, and increasing public safety. SSU strongly collaborates with area law enforcement agencies, has increased field contacts, works non-traditional hours, imposes curfews and incorporates electronic monitoring in order to better accomplish these objectives. They meet monthly with our in-house mental health specialist to staff cases and ensure clients are supervised in accordance with evidenced based practices and in a manner conducive to minimizing community risk and maximizing the benefits for the client. This unit is also responsible for compliance with statutory mandates for the supervision of Sexually Violent Dangerous Offenders, community notification, residency restrictions and other legislative requirements.

Pre-sentence Investigation Unit:

The primary purpose of the Pre-sentence Investigation Unit is to provide the sentencing court with accurate, timely and relevant data to aid the sentencing judge in determining the most appropriate sentencing alternative for the client. Reporting staff are encouraged to explore and recommend innovative programs to meet the needs of the client and the community. Pre-sentence Investigation Reports are consistent with this division's operating principles with regard to risk and sentencing guidelines. Whenever possible, victims are given an opportunity for input either in person or correspondence.

1145 Unit:

The 1145 (Local Control) Unit works with felony inmates sentenced to the DOC for one year or less, housed either at the Marion County Jail, Marion County Transition Center, or released to a reduced custody status. Staff assigned to this unit, monitor and develop release plans and orders of supervision for every client, approximately 10 each month, sentenced to the custody of the Marion County Local Supervisory Authority with a period of post-prison supervision. They also coordinate transfers to other counties, participate in case staffing to establish appropriate supervision conditions, make recommendations on and supervise clients in non-custody alternatives, track release dates, and monitor Local Control inmates lodged in other facilities. This unit is also responsible for data entry in both the state and county computer systems.

Limited Supervision Unit:

The Limited Supervision Unit (LSU) is the case-bank unit responsible for monitoring approximately 800 clients classified as low or limited risk per the PSC and/or the LS/CMI. Clients are monitored for new law violations and behavior that constitute a public safety threat. Appropriate action on violations may include a report to the releasing authority, incarceration, intermediate sanctions, or an increased level of supervision. Clients are moved from the unit for behavior that threatens public safety as defined by set guidelines. Working in collaboration with our victim services, LSU also monitors restitution payments to the Courts.

Gender Responsive Unit:

The Gender Responsive Unit (GRU) consists of three parole/probation deputies who supervise female clients across Marion County. The goal of this unit is to address the specific needs and experiences of women involved in the criminal justice system, which often includes a history of trauma, abuse, and gender-based discrimination. By adopting a gender-responsive approach, the deputies in this unit aim to recognize and account for these factors by tailoring interventions and support to address their individual circumstances. Additionally, trauma-informed care acknowledges the potential impact of trauma on female clients' lives and strives to create a safe and supportive environment that promotes healing and recovery. The three deputies are trained in the Women's Risk Needs Assessment and the Pathways model of supervision to address gender responsive needs and have a trauma informed approach. The goal is to empower women, reduce recidivism rates, and promote successful reintegration into society, ultimately fostering positive outcomes for both the individuals and the community. Deputies work collaboratively with community partners such as the Oregon Department of Human Services (DHS) to address client areas of need, including substance abuse treatment, parenting education, and other services and interventions designed to reduce the client's risk to recidivate.

SB416 Pilot Program:

The SB416 Program consists of two parole/probation deputies and funding for one deputy district attorney. The program goal is to develop and implement evidence based strategies to improve the supervision of probationers and reduce recidivism. Five objectives frame the program including: 1) Develop an evidence based sentencing program utilizing risk and needs assessments; 2) Develop partnerships with the District Attorney's Office and the Courts; 3) Provide evidence based cognitive, motivation, substance abuse treatment and mentoring services; 4) Provide an appropriate level of case management that ensures coordinated delivery of client services; and 5) Collect and analyze project data and related outcome measures. Marion County's SB416 program frees up prison beds for high-risk clients who present the greatest threat to the community and allow for community supervision to safely manage and hold clients accountable in the community by providing services that will reduce the likelihood of future criminal behavior.

All program participants receive an appropriate level of case management that ensures coordinated delivery of client services. Program participants receive evidence based cognitive, motivation, substance abuse treatment and pro-social mentoring services through Bridgeway Recovery Services. The primary goals include the desire to enhance community safety, reduce criminal activity, and to assist clients with substance abuse problems to enter and maintain an alcohol and drug free lifestyle. Since inception on July 1, 2012, this program has directly reduced Marion County's historically high prison admission rate. In doing so, the program has preserved valuable prison beds for more serious, higher risk clients who present the greatest threat to our community.

Downward Departure Unit

Marion County has two supervision caseloads that provide intensive supervision services to individuals receiving downward dispositional departures in lieu of a prison sentence who are ineligible to participate in the SB416 program. The goal of these caseloads is to utilize evidence based strategies to improve the supervision of probationers and reduce recidivism. Supervising individuals on the downward departure caseloads frees up prison beds for high-risk clients who present the greatest threat to the community and allows for community supervision to safely manage and hold clients accountable in the community by providing services that will reduce the likelihood of future criminal behavior.

All program participants receive an appropriate level of case management that ensures coordinated delivery of client services. Program participants receive evidence based cognitive and motivation programming as well as referrals to any relevant community treatment programs. The supervising deputy utilizes information from assessments to create a unique case plan tailored to each client which will reduce the likelihood of future criminal activity. The deputy focuses on developing rapport, utilizing a structured program of positive and negative reinforcement, and cognitive behavioral interventions intended to teach the participant social skills, problem solving skills, and techniques to target and change risky thinking. Over time, the deputy teaches the participant skills to help them avoid antisocial peers and high risk situations as well as general life skills. These interventions are designed to help the participant reduce their risk of future criminal activity.

Family Sentencing Alternative Program (FSAP):

The Family Sentencing Alternative Program (FSAP) is a collaborative effort involving the Sheriff's Office, District Attorney's Office, Oregon Judicial Department's Third Judicial District, and the Marion County Branch of DHS. FSAP is designed to identify qualified clients with primary custody of a minor child and divert them from prison to probation and community supervision. The target population served is medium-to-high-risk non-violent property and drug clients who are a custodial parent and have a presumptive prison sentence or have a probationary offer with a stipulated prison sentence upon revocation of probation. In an effort to reduce the traumatic effect that an incarcerated parent can have on families, caregivers, children and spouses; the FSAP program exists to provide wrap-around treatment, mentoring, and employment services to address underlying drivers of criminal conduct. The primary focus of FSAP is: preserving family unity and stability through diverting children from foster care; reducing prison bed usage and allowing for community supervision to safely manage and hold clients accountable; and reducing recidivism by providing services that will reduce the likelihood of future criminal behavior. This unit consists of one parole/probation deputy who supervises 20-25 high to medium-risk clients.

Transitional Services Unit:

The main objective of our Transitional Services Unit (TSU) is to prepare and facilitate individuals for successful reentry back into our community from incarceration. TSU is made up of three parole/probation deputies. The first deputy supervises clients participating in our transitional program Student Opportunity for Achieving Results (SOAR). TSU also provides inmates releasing to Marion County information pertaining to the various facets of reentry via the reach-in process. This provides AIC's valuable information they in turn take to their release counselor to come up with a release plan to reintegrate into the community. The Field Investigation PO investigates every release plan to ensure the AIC has safe and appropriate housing and assigns their case to the appropriate supervising unit with the applicable conditions of supervision. In addition to educating our releasing inmates on reentry, TSU also provides information to family and friends through Release Orientation seminars. The final TSU deputy works in the Transition from Jail to Community (TJC) program. This is a program focused on our local population at the Marion County Transition Center. AIC's have access to sign up for OHP, attend educational classes, and get referrals to resources such as substance use treatment or housing.

Other Components:

Day Reporting Program:

The Day Reporting Program serves as an alternative sanctioning option for our parole/probation deputies as well as a capacity release option for our Jail and Transition Center. The program focuses on targeting the specific criminogenic risk and needs of each client. Services are tailored to address each client's risk and needs, helping to reduce the overall risk and increase the client's likelihood of success. Program elements include: job search, cognitive restructuring classes, substance abuse treatment, community service, or a

	combination of these programs to promote accountability and foster an opportunity for positive change. Hearings: Assigned staff conduct due process hearings on clients accused of violating the conditions of parole/post-prison supervision and clients under the Interstate Compact. Hearings staff make their recommendations to the supervising authority, consistent with office policies and administrative sanctions sanctioning grid, and as outlined in the Parole Board Administrative Rules or the Interstate Compact Agreement. Sanctions: A range of effective intermediate sanctions, such as: jail, house arrest, curfew, Transition Center, day reporting, restrictive conditions, extended supervision, community service, Electronic Monitoring program, and project assignments are available to our parole/probation deputies. Sanctions are implemented collaboratively with management utilizing a continuum of available sanctions and our EBP implementation. The goals of administering sanctions are client accountability, affecting positive changes in client behavior, and providing adequate consequences for failing to abide by conditions of supervision. Victim Services: To address the many significant issues impacting victims interacting with the criminal justice system, the Community Corrections Division, in cooperation with the Marion County District Attorney's Office, created the Victim Services Unit (VSU). It is currently staffed by one full-time Victim Services Coordinator who works on behalf of victims. The VSU is located and supervised in the Community Corrections Division and facilitates services to victims of clients currently being supervised in the division. Services provided include assistance in understanding conditions of supervision, ensuring victim's rights are being met, collection of unpaid court ordered restitution, referrals to community resources, crisis counseling, safety planning and an education program for the victims of abuse and violent crimes. The VSU also assists victims of domestic violence who desire reunification with safety planning and understanding the intervention process. Polygraph Services: The Community Corrections Division contracts with a polygraph examiner to provide regular, subsidized polygraph services for indigent clients requiring a polygraph as a condition of their supervision. The polygraph examiner is authorized to conduct full disclosure, maintenance and specific-issue polygraphs as part of this division's surveillance and supervision strategies. Polygraphs are a vital tool in the evidence based supervision of specific populations of clients in order to assist in determining a client's compliance with the conditions of their supervision, to determine whether any violations have been committed, or to obtain an accurate offending and/or criminal history for the purposes of treatment. Interstate Compact: Designated parole/probation staff are assigned to investigate and complete Interstate Compact requests, per policy as defined by the Interstate Commission for Adult Offender Supervision. Investigations are completed within 30 days of assignment, and a report of the outcome is sent to the sending state via Oregon Interstate Compact.

Program Name:	Marion County Reentry Initiative (MCRI) - Transitional Services
Program Description:	MCRI is a collaborative endeavor involving the Community Corrections Division of the Marion County Sheriff's Office, education, and non-profit agencies working together to rebuild lives, promote community safety and save taxpayer money by breaking the cycle of criminal activity. Our most active community partners within MCRI include Mid-Willamette Valley Community Action Agency, Chemeketa Community College, Bridgeway Recovery Services and Marion County Health and Human Services. The main components of MCRI are reach-ins, De Muniz Resource Center, Marion County TJC, and SOAR. MCRI targets services towards medium to high risk clients releasing from jail and prison. Reach-Ins: With logistical assistance from Department Of Corrections (DOC), three parole/probation deputies within our Transitional Services Unit conduct reach-ins at 180 days prior to an Adult in Custody's (AIC) release. The reach-in process consists of targeted participant interaction to prepare releasing AICs from state prisons for long term and productive life change in the community. This change is achieved by engaging AICs prior to release and providing them with realistic information pertaining to the various facets of reentry into the community. Reach-in participants are educated on Evidence Based Practices (EBP) related to risk assessments, available services, and other community partners/resources. Appropriate referrals are then made to MCRI partners based on assessments and the needs of the participant. The majority of reach-ins are conducted in person at valley institutions including Oregon State Penitentiary, Santiam Correctional Institution, Coffee Creek Correctional Facility, and Oregon State Correctional Institution. Parole/probation deputies conduct telephonic reach-ins with AICs who are housed in prisons outside the valley. Transition from Jail to Community Program (TJC): The Marion County Transition from Jail to Community Program provides targeted transition planning and pre-release services to AICs at the Marion County Transition Center. Participants receive an array of MCRI services to address specific criminogenic needs to ensure a smooth transition from incarceration back to the community. Services include pre-release reach-ins, case planning, motivational and cognitive programming, education, employment services, and referrals for treatment, housing, and transportation in the community post-release. This program includes funding for one parole/probation deputy, one jail counselor, support for the operation of the De Muniz Resource Center, and Transition Center bed costs. De Muniz Resource Center: The De Muniz Resource Center is designed to be a one stop center for individuals seeking a successful transition from incarceration back to the community. Resource center staff are there to help guide individuals through their transition process. Services provided at the resource center include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Employment assistance. • Education/self improvement classes. • Housing search assistance and tenant education classes. • Legal aid clinic. • Referrals to substance abuse recovery resources and on-site support meetings. • Community Health/mental health resource information. • Basic needs referrals (food, clothing, transportation, etc.). • OHP enrollment assistance

	Student Opportunity for Achieving Results (SOAR): SOAR is a 12 week program that encompasses elements of stability, structure, and enhanced supervision. SOAR provides cognitive programming, substance abuse treatment, transition/case planning, employment assistance, subsidy housing as needed, as well as referrals to social and educational services based on the unique needs and circumstances of the individual. Clients accepted into this program are considered students of Chemeketa Community College. This program was created in partnership with the Community Corrections Division of the Marion County Sheriff's Office, Chemeketa Community College, and Marion County Health and Human Services. SOAR as a whole is dedicated to encourage, assist, and inspire individuals towards optimum self-management and well-being. Release Orientation: Release Orientation was designed for the family and friends of AICs releasing to Marion County from DOC. The purpose of this one-time session is to ease the fear and anxiety related to the reentry process for both those releasing from prison and their families. The transition parole/probation deputies share information on healthy ways to support and encourage a loved one in their successful transition back into our community and establish a positive partnership with our client's natural community support through education, knowledge, and communication. The parole/probation deputies also discuss the conditions of supervision, what the transition looks like from prison to the community for their loved one, and answer any questions the participants might have. Alternative to Incarceration Program (AIP) Supervision: Once a client has completed the Oregon Department of Corrections AIP program, they are released to transitional leave. Before being released to transitional leave, a parole/probation deputy from our Transitional Services Unit conducts a telephonic reach-in. The purpose of the telephonic reach-in is to begin to develop rapport, provide pertinent information in regard to their transition, and start the process of gathering information concerning the client's risk and needs. After release, clients are supervised in the appropriate general or specialty unit for the duration of their transitional leave. While on transitional leave, an LS/CMI risk/need assessment is completed which is accompanied by an individualized case plan. Appropriate service referrals are then made to minimize the clients' risk and needs.
Program Category:	Transition Services
Program Objectives:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To educate releasing clients and their families on community supervision and the resources available to them. • To provide clients being released into our community a positive reintegration through targeting meaningful interventions. • To foster positive working relationships with clients and minimize their misconceptions and/or anxieties of community supervision prior to release. • Reduce recidivism rates by providing services proven by research to assist in mitigating a releasing clients' criminogenic needs.

Program Name:	Electronic Monitoring Program
Program Description:	The Electronic Monitoring Program, managed by a community corrections case aide, provides electronic supervision of clients through the use of global positioning system ankle bracelets or a smart phone based application. These allow staff to track clients general location and compliance with the conditions of supervision and pretrial monitoring. This program serves both individuals awaiting trial, as well as convicted clients who are completing a term of parole, post-prison supervision, or probation and has applicability across a spectrum of local corrections agencies. The Electronic Monitoring Program contracts with Satellite Tracking of People for Global Positioning System (GPS) equipment and monitoring management software. Satellite Tracking of People provides passive and active GPS tracking of clients in the community. The Electronic Monitoring Program is used by community corrections deputies as an alternative to a jail custody sanction and/or as a tool to augment traditional supervision by increasing surveillance for higher risk clients. The local courts use electronic monitoring as an alternative to jail for select defendants pending trial as well as a sentence for convicted clients. The Marion County Jail and Transition Center use this program as a reduced level of custody for adults in custody who are deemed inappropriate for traditional incarceration. Finally, the Electronic Monitoring Program is used for certain high risk Transition Center adults in custody who are allowed to maintain outside employment while they complete their term of incarceration.

Program Name:	Marion County Transition Center
Program Description:	The Transition Center facility is used as a means to hold adults in custody (AICs) accountable and ensure the safety of the public while preparing them for reentry into the community. The mission of the Transition Center is to provide just and humane care for AICs incarcerated at the center by providing a positive rehabilitative environment. The Transition Center has a current capacity of 144 AICs. This is a minimum security facility providing a structured environment where AICs can begin the transition process back to the community. If AICs are not currently on a supervised work crew they are expected to participate in programming, which may include outside employment if verified. All AICs who are assigned to a work crew or work detail are also required to participate in transitional planning for assistance with resources, identification, and referrals if appropriate. Additional cognitive programming classes are available through The Pathfinder Network. The Transition Center has expanded its capacity to provide more work release options for AICs who have community jobs. This is a significant step in making our Transition Center more of a transition program rather than a sanction-only facility. The Transition Center also provides emergency temporary boarder beds for supervised clients who are having difficulty finding a place to live in the community. The Transition Center is the central location for our Marion County Reentry services including; the Marion County Transition from Jail to the Community (TJC) Program, the De Muniz Resource Center, and the Pretrial Release Program. Core Correctional Practices The Transition Center has adopted Core Correctional Practices (CCP). The principles of effective intervention emphasized in CCP remind staff to communicate with AICs using the skills and techniques shown to have the greatest impact on reducing future criminal activity. Direct Sanctions The Transition Center also accepts direct sanctions from community corrections deputies, which allows clients to be held accountable without returning them to jail. This prevents the disruption of positive activities such as employment and treatment programming, while still maintaining accountability for violations. Pretrial Release Program The goal of the Pretrial Release Program is to promote future court appearances, enhance public safety, and provide the Court with practical, risk-based monitoring and support options for defendants that require oversight while pending adjudication. The program model is based of the National Association of Pretrial Services Agencies (NAPSA) evidence based standards on pretrial release. Key elements of pretrial monitoring include: utilizing risk assessments to make informed decisions; using the least restrictive interventions needed to promote pretrial success; notification of upcoming court appearances; informing the Court of new arrests or defendant conduct that may justify modification of conditions; and monitoring defendants' compliance with court-ordered conditions. Pretrial monitoring is individualized and tailored to a defendant's assessed risk levels and risk factors. It is specifically designed to promote court appearances and enhance public safety. Before being placed in the Pretrial Release Program, defendants are evaluated to determine if they are appropriate for release. Following the release investigation, program staff make a recommendation to the Court as to whether a defendant is appropriate for release to the community based on several variables; including public safety risk, flight risk, and the presence of any protective factors (e.g., stable housing, employment, community ties, awareness of substance abuse issues, etc.). If a defendant is determined to be eligible for the Pretrial Release Program, staff also make a recommendation as to the level of pretrial monitoring the defendant should be held to. Defendants are monitored through a combination of phone contacts, office appointments, and electronic monitoring. Defendants are monitored from the time of release until the criminal case is resolved. While in the Pretrial Release Program, staff encourage clients to seek needed community resources

	such as substance abuse treatment, stable housing, and signing up for insurance (Oregon Health Plan, etc.). Our initial goal was to have 150 clients monitored in the Pretrial Release Program. As of May 2023, we had surpassed that goal and now have 256 clients who are being monitored in the Pretrial Release Program. Between July 2021 and March 31st 2023, the Pretrial Release Program received 1,553 referrals. Of those referrals: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 5 were referred back to Court (0.4%) • 2 were force released from custody prior to pretrial evaluation (0.2%) • 1,538 were released to pretrial monitoring (98.8%) The National Institute of Corrections (NIC) identifies three key outcome measures for pretrial release programs: Appearance Rate-defined as the percentage of defendancts attending all scheduled court appearances. Safety Rate-defined as the percentage of defendants not charged with a new criminal offense during the pretrial stage. Success Rate-defined as the percentage of defendants who are: 1)Not revoked for technical violations of supervision; 2)Not charged with a new criminal offense during the pretrial stage; and 3)Attend all scheduled court appearances. Between July 2021 and March 31st 2023 Marion County Pretrial had the following outcome measures: Appearance Rate: 66% Safety Rate: 99% Success Rate: 49%
