-Sheriff Nick Hunter, District Attorney Paige Clarkson, and Ryan Matthews

Summary of presentation:

- Implementation of HB4002 includes the expansion of the Law Enforcement Assisted Diversion (LEAD) program, the new deflection hotline, and the progress of the Restore Court:
  - Certified Recovery Mentors handle referrals 24/7.
- Restore Court addresses drug and other related crimes:
  - Success in court expunging charges.
  - The court has had 11 referrals enrolled into services:
    - There was a total of 13 referrals.

- 12 are actively engaged in treatment.
  - Has had a slow start but numbers are growing.
- Law enforcement report increased ability to search vehicles and seize guns under HB4002, leading to improved public safety.
- Ongoing training for deputies on drug investigations.
- Marion County is collaborating with other jurisdictions:
  - Other counties are implementing similar models to Marion County's model.
- Work crew is helping generate revenue for restitution.

5. STABILIZATION CENTER UPDATE

-Commander Mike Hartford

Summary of presentation:

- The Transition Center closed, and the new Stabilization Center's purpose were discussed.
- New Case Management Model:
  - The goal is to make it less institutional and more focused on preparing individuals for successful re-entry into the community.
  - Includes services addressing substance abuse, mental health, and other needs.
- Hiring new Stabilization Specialists:
  - Will get extensive training in core correctional practices and case management techniques to better support the individuals housed at the center.
- Purchased a retina drug scanning device.
- Expanded the stabilization mentor program.

6. OREGON DISTRICT ATTORNEYS' ASSOCIATION (ODAA) PROACTIVE LEGISLATIVE AGENDA

Summary of presentation:

-District Attorney Paige Clarkson

- It is important to educate legislators on the nuances of expungement:
  - Specifically, regarding domestic violence and sexual assault crimes.
- There have been legislative efforts to all for automatic expungement of certain crimes:
  - Concerns on automatic expungement of domestic violence and sexual assault.
- Many criminal statutes are based on predicate offenses and repeat offenses can lead to more serious charges:
  - Automatic expungement of certain crimes can undercut the foundation of predicate offense statutes.
- Legislators with no public safety background are unaware of nuances and implications of automatic expungement.
- The ODAA's aims to provide expertise to inform the legislative process.
- ODAA has been doing outreach to all legislators.

MOTION: A motion was made to approve the reallocation of $206,813 from the Justice Reinvestment Program to fund the expanded stabilization mentor program. Seconded and passed unanimously.

7. CRIMINAL JUSTICE ADVISORY COUNCIL (CJAC)

-Judge Tracy Prall

Summary of presentation:

- The Oregon Public Defense Commission (OPDC) requested to review the county's crisis plan:
  - Marion County was the only county that agreed to meet to review the plan.
  - It was found that Marion County implemented everything outlined in the plan:
    - OPDC did not follow through on their outlined plan commitments.
  - Marion County has been providing counsel to all in-custody individuals:
    - OPDC's, Trial Division lawyers, only handle in-custody cases.
    - They do not take on Marion County's cases, as they have for other counties.
  - OPDC agreed to take on additional cases from Marion County, including probation violations (PVs), DUIs, and diversions.
- This will help with some of the burden on Marion County's contract lawyers.
- The main issue is the maximum attorney capacity set by OPDC:
  - Limits the number of cases lawyers can handle per year.
- The cap and monthly limit on case points creates challenges in fully utilizing Marion County's public defenders.

8. JUSTICE REINVESTMENT GRANT UPDATE

-Commander Mike Hartford

Summary of presentation:

- The Justice Reinvestment Grant funds 10 programs in Marion County:
  - 8 are administered by the Sheriff's Office.
  - 2 are victim service provider funding and the specialty court program:
    - Administered by other agencies.
- Required quarterly reporting to the Criminal Justice Commission on people served and financial spending on the programs.
- Updates to the Marion County Public Safety Coordinating Council are part of the oversight and reporting process for the grant-funded programs.
- Program Highlights:
  - Prison Diversion (Senate Bill 416) has steady service with a decline in recent quarters:
    - Motivation classes have helped boost engagement.
  - Transition From Jail to Community has declined in referrals and completion rates due to the Transition Center closure:
    - Expect improvements with the new Stabilization Center.
  - Link-Up for dual diagnosis individuals has stable service levels but declining completion rates:
    - Need retention strategy enhancements.
  - Student Opportunity for Achieving Results (SOAR) had significant growth in enrollment:
    - The new female cohort has graduation rates around 55-60%.
  - The De Muniz Resource Center saw a sharp decline in service delivery after the closure of the Transition Center, and the remaining funds were reallocated

- to the new stabilization mentor program.
- The housing program provided 120 temporary housing stipends in the last two quarters to 71 different recipients.
- The Corrections Treatment with Bridgeway showed improvement in completion rates.
- Peer Support, Resiliency, and Recovery saw a peak in participation, with higher completion rates in the last two quarters.
- The Justice Reinvestment Grant Update will be a standing agenda item for future meetings to ensure ongoing reporting and oversight of these important community programs.

9. NOMINATION FOR VICE-CHAIR

-Commissioner Colm Willis

Summary of presentation:

- The vacancy for the Vice-Chair position, due to Jan Downing's departure.
- Council members were asked to submit nominations for the new Vice-Chair:
  - They will then be brought forward to the executive committee.

10. OPEN DISCUSSION 2025 GOALS & PROJECTS

-Commissioner Colm Willis

Summary of presentation:

- Address youth crime and violence in the community:
  - Concerning trends in juvenile crime and violence in the community.
- Map out existing resources for youth to identify gaps, and better coordinate efforts across different organizations.
- The System of Care, a community group serving children, youth, and families, a potential partner to align prevention efforts:
  - Include youth voices in their strategic planning process.
- Need to balance accountability and support among the youth.
- Focus on parental accountability to improve outcomes.
- Complex issues need collaborative, community-wide effort to address youth crime and violence:
  - Involve a wider range of stakeholders, including faith-based organizations, community groups, and the creative community.
- Need to have opportunities for youth to engage in.
