HOUSE BILL 3194 IMPLEMENTATION

Mental Health Services

Ann-Marie Bandfield from the Marion County Health Department and Lt. Tad Larson from the Marion County Sheriff's Office presented this item.

Summary of presentation (see attached)

- Diverting mentally ill from the criminal justice system in Marion County is an ongoing, collaborative partnership that has grown over the past 20 years.
- Goal is to provide the most appropriate placement for the individual involved.
- History of the partnership
  - 1995, the Marion County Health Department established the Psychiatric Crisis Center, a 24/7 facility adjacent to the Salem Hospital.
  - Over the next ten years, a crisis medication prescriber/case managers were added to the center.
  - 2006-2007, the Health Department and Sheriff's Office form partnership:
    - Qualified mental health professionals placed at county jail;
    - Crisis intervention training begins for "first responders" (law enforcement professionals) to deal with mentally ill individuals encountered in the field; and
    - Mental health professionals begin to divert individuals to community resources.
  - 2008, mental health court begins serving adjudicated participants.
  - Grant funds allow creation of a Crisis Outreach Response Team (CORT) to follow up on police reports of mental health issues.
    - 2014, a Mobile Crisis Response Team created to respond directly to calls for service when patrol officers or deputies believe mental illness is a concern on a particular call.
- These diversion efforts have produced impressive results:
  - Decline in jail bookings;
  - Reduction in police officer custodies at hospital emergency rooms; and
  - A 44% reduction of Marion County admissions at the Oregon State Hospital in 2014.

Summary of discussion

- Crisis Outreach Response Team encumbered by inability to travel to other areas of county.
- Mental health treatment is expensive since only 50-55% of individuals seen at the Psychiatric Crisis Center are enrolled in Oregon Health Plan (Medicaid).
- Local community investments fund these programs.
- Diversion programs will never pay for themselves, but are a huge cost savings for taxpayers.
- Marion County is one of the only communities in the state to provide these services on a continuing basis.

Victims' Services

Summary of presentation

- Draft Victims' Services Flow Chart reviewed (see attachment).

- 10 % of Marion County’s Justice Reinvestment Grant funds set aside for victims’ services (estimated at $92,000 per year if the Co-Chairs’ budget is adopted).
- Alison Kelley, director, Liberty House, and Jayne Downing, director, Center for Hope and Safety, presented a joint concept (see attachment) for new or enhanced services to include in the Justice Reinvestment Grant.

Summary of discussion

- The victims’ services needs presented are highly specialized. Only a few entities can provide them.
- Sex trafficking in the valley has also increased, requiring specialized treatment from a child therapist.
- After Justice Reinvestment Grant is approved, county will seek organizations to provide these services.
  - Non-profit organizations with a core mission to focus on victims.

MOTION: Sheriff Jason Myers moved that the MCPSCC and MCRC conceptually support services that address the mental and behavioral health needs of victims’ crimes (involving domestic violence, sexual assault, trafficking and drug abuse) to be included in the Justice Reinvestment plan for victims’ services. Seconded by Chief Moore; motion carried. A voice vote was unanimous.

    - August 4 - Steering Committee will use framework to develop and recommend a list of programs and services to be funded with the Justice Reinvestment Grant funds.
    - September 8 - full council will review and vote to approve recommended list of programs and services to be funded by the Justice Reinvestment Grant funds.
