

New Trainings!

Wednesday, April 17, 2019

Liberty House Prevention Services is proud to offer two valuable trainings from

These trainings are free and open to any interested adults.
Pizza Dinner provided!

Reservation Required, please indicate Session One, Two or Both!

RSVP or questions to: Katelynn Kniffin, Liberty House Prevention Coordinator
971.599.5876 kkniffin@LibertyHouseCenter.org

Training Location: Liberty House Building Three
1786 State St, Salem, OR 97301

Wednesday, April 17, 2019

Session One: 5:30 pm - 6:30 pm

Darkness to Light's Healthy Touch for Children & Youth

Learn about safe and respectful interactions with children and how to recognize when someone's interaction with a child are crossing that boundary.

Objectives: Using video and discussion - topics include; Healthy sexual development and identifying normal healthy touching behaviors from potentially unhealthy behaviors.

Wednesday, April 17, 2019

Session Two: 6:30 pm – 7:30 pm

Darkness to Light's Commercial Sexual Exploitation of Children

Learn why some children may be more vulnerable to commercial sexual exploitation than others.

Objectives: Through video, hear stories from survivors, experts, youth serving professionals, and parent. A course worksheet will be provided, designed to help reinforce key concepts and serve as a resource guide on exploitation. Interactive discussion about sexual abuse prevention.