Review and Discussion:

- CCO Update
  - Work is happening in contracts and it is going slowly
  - Clinical committee is working on offering some best practice and models that improves quality and efficiency of service
  - CCO will take on the responsibility of residential treatment money starting July 1st

Review and Discussion:

- Senior Sub-committee Conference - brief overview
  - 130 people in attendance
  - Scored very well on the evaluations
    - They wanted more time with the presenters
  - Yamhill county is interested in doing a conference

- Yamhill would like to partner with Marion County LADPC
- Two presenters were unable to come
- Will not be able to get the facility for next year if we do it again.
  - If we want to do it again next year we should set a date and get the room reserved.
  - If we do it on a Tuesday it is community day and the facility is cheaper.
  - We can always cancel it if we decide not to do the conference

Discussion:

- Update on progress of DRxugSafe Summits being put on by CFC
  - There was not a big turnout on the first one in Keizer
    - Maybe about 60 people
  - 2nd one will be in Woodburn tonight
  - It was filmed and will play on CCTV
  - The program was very well done
