

Ananiah Johnston
2024 Youth Volunteer of the Year

Ananiah is being recognized for her outstanding accomplishments as a young person who volunteers for a county program, division or department.

Tonight, we have the special privilege of recognizing an exceptional young volunteer, Cadet Ananiah Johnston, as our Outstanding Youth Volunteer of the Year.

Ananiah's dedication and service to others set her apart. She eagerly takes on any task or assignment, and leads by example helping to set the tone and mentoring other youth in the program.

What makes Ananiah's contributions even more remarkable is how she balances them with a full and demanding schedule.

Ananiah's initiative, positive attitude, and impressive work ethic are qualities that stand out at any age—but they shine even brighter in someone so young.

At a time when many young people face countless pressures and challenges, she has chosen to step forward, serve others, and make a real difference.

Please join me in applauding and thanking Cadet Ananiah Johnston for her outstanding service and for reminding us all of the power of dedication, kindness, and serving others.
