

Victims' Rights Request Form For Adult Cases

As a victim of crime in Oregon, you have legal rights. Many of these rights go into effect automatically and can be found in the "Victims' Rights Guide." However, some rights you must request before they go into effect. A victim, the victim's attorney or, if the victim requests, the district attorney at his or her discretion, may assert and enforce these rights on your behalf. [Oregon Constitution Art. 1, Sec. 42(4)].

Please check the box in front of any of the right(s) (listed below) you are requesting.

Then return the form to the Marion County District Attorney – Victim Assistance Division
PO Box 14500; Salem, OR 97309

Return this form if you want to exercise any of these rights. The district attorney's office will assume that you do not want to exercise these rights unless we hear from you. If you ever change your mind and decide that you do want to exercise rights that you didn't yet request, please contact our office and we will work with you to exercise the rights if that is still possible.

Victims' Rights Information After Conviction (Adult)

As a victim of crime in Oregon, you have legal rights. Many of these rights go into effect automatically. However, some of the rights need to be requested by you before they can go into effect. The following crime victims' rights would apply after a criminal conviction.

To request certain rights immediately following a criminal conviction, you must provide your contact information directly to the individual agency responsible for supervising the offender in your case.

- If the offender is supervised locally (on probation), contact your county's community corrections agency,
- If the offender is incarcerated in the state prison system, contact the Oregon Board of Parole and Post-Prison Supervision (503-945-0907), or
- If the offender is found Guilty Except for Insanity (GEI), contact the Oregon Psychiatric Security Review Board (503-229-5596) or the State Hospital Review Panel (503-945-2800).

To ensure on-going notification of custody information, you must also register with VINE.

VINE (Victim Information Notification Everyday), a victim notification system, gives victims of crime 24-hour access to information about in-custody adult offenders in jail or state prison facilities, as well as youth offenders in Oregon Youth Authority youth correctional facilities. This custody information in adult cases includes:

- The location of custody
- Changes in parole or probation status
- Release information
- Transfer information
- Notification of escape(s)
- Notification of death

You can use the VINE service by calling 1-877-674-8463 or by going to www.VINELINK.COM.

Other useful contact information:

- To be notified when someone in the custody of the Department of Corrections is scheduled to be released, contact Victim Services for the Oregon Board of Parole and Post-Prison Supervision at 503-945-0907.
- To be notified 30 days in advance of Parole Board hearings, contact Victim Services for the Oregon Board of Parole and Post-Prison Supervision at 503-945-0907. (These hearings occur only in certain adult criminal cases.)
- If the defendant is under the authority of the Psychiatric Security Review Board (PSRB) or the State Hospital Review Panel (SHRP), you may be notified in advance of hearings or when the defendant is released, discharged or escapes by contacting the PSRB at 503-229-5596.
- You can request information about registered sex offenders by calling the Oregon State Police Sex Offender Information at 503-934-1258.
- After conviction, to confirm that you are signed up to receive Department of Justice Post-Conviction Program services for any ongoing legal actions contact 503-378-4284.
- If your rights are not honored, you can assert a claim of violation of crime victims' rights. There are time limits for this right. For more information see www.doj.state.or.us/victims.
